Subject.

In re the succession to the Sri Akshobya Theertha Swamy Mutt in Kudli, Shimoga Taluk.

From

The Dy. Commr. of the Shimoga Dist.

No 183/29 Dated 10th August 1906.

There is an ancient and renowned mutt in Kudli, Shimoga Taluk, originally founded by Sri Akshobhya Theerthark, the direct disciple of Sarwagna Theertha Sripadangalavaru, the founder of the Madhwa religion. The mutt is a Muzrai institution which is reported to be in the enjoyment of Inam lands in the Shimoga Dist, assessed at Rs 3278/.

Sri Raghusanta Theertha Sripadangalavaru the (senior) Swamy has addressed a Sirastha dated 22nd July 1906 ~~from Hubli~~, to the Secretary through The Dy. Commr. of the Shimoga Dist.

File No. of Muzrai Secretariat.

The Swamy states that while touring in the Hyderabad Territories, he was suddenly taken dangerously ill at Sonni in the Sudur Taluka, and grew very weak; and was consequently driven to the necessity of handing over the Asrama on Dwimukhi Samvatsarada Phalguna Suddah Navami day on the banks of the Godavari to Omkar Venkappa bharya of Kodangal, Kalburgi gullah, under the titular name of Sri Raghusanta Theertharu. He further represents that the nominee is well versed in Veda, Vedanta and other Sastras; is descended from distinguished ancestors; and commands the esteem and regard of his disciples; and adds that his talents and accomplishments have qualified him to succeed. He states that after the nomination of his successor, his health began to show signs of improvement, and that both of them were touring in the Hyderabad and other Territories, and that the junior Swamy came to Kudli very recently. The Senior Swamy further represents that as he was suddenly taken ill;

To, L. Srikantaiah Rao Esquire
Secretary to Government
Muzarai Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit herewith a Sreemukha of the 22nd ultimo, addressed to you by Sri Raghu-Shamla Teertha Swamy of the Akshobhya Teertha Swamy Mutt at Kudli in the Shimoga Taluk, requesting that Sri Raghu Kamta Teertha Swamie, formerly known as Omkar Venkatachariya of Kodangal in the Gulbarga District of the Nizams Dominions may be recognized as his successor in the Kudli Mutt.

2. It would appear from the above that while the Senior Swamy was touring in Hyderabad Territories, he was suddenly taken dangerously ill at Sonni in Indur Taluka and that consequently he had to name his his Successor. The junior Swami is said to be well-versed in Madhva Philosophy and to command the respect of his disciples residing in different parts of the Country. The leading members of the community attached to the Math residing in this District have expressed their approbation of the nomination as will be seen from Enclosure B.

3. The institution enjoys in all Inam lands assessed at Rs 3278/- in this District.

4. I have seen the Swami at Shimoga and beg to recommend that his nomination as Guru of the Math may be recognised by Government.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant

M Narain Rao

Deputy Commissioner

Shimoga District.
